From the North to the South, the East to the West, sounds of praise go forth in favor of HOBEN-BACK'S worm syrup and Hobensack's liver pills. The great efficacy of these medicines have been so well established, that with them there is no such thing as fail. Read the following testimony from a minister of the gospei.

DR. J. N. Hobensack:—Dear Sir—My child, from infancy has been afflicted with worms—at times almost frantic. We med several preparations without any good effect, until we med your syrup. Actonishing, yet delightful to parental feelings!—she, frantic with pain, enaciated with disease, in a few days was relieved from pain, restored to health, and is now doing well, after passing a great many worms full six inches long, and scores from one to four inches.
